employABILITY EXPO is an event that will include:

Keynote Breakfast

Joining us this year is Aliana Rozenek. Aliana is vice president, human resources, communications and sustainability for The Home Depot Canada.

Networking Event

Suppliers, employers and various support program providers will showcase products, services, job & career opportunities or support programs to create successful employment outcomes.

NOTE: Networking Event will be part of the main expo hall, located around the perimeter of the room. Only 15 Booths available, assigned on a first come first served basis

Break-out Session

There will be a break-out session with information that will help Manitoba employers and persons with disabilities learn about inclusive employment in Manitoba.

Sponsorship Recognition

We proudly give high visibility to all sponsors of the employABILITY EXPO - at the event itself and throughout the calendar year. This includes:

During the Breakfast

Leading up to the formal presentations, Sponsor Logos will be continually rotated on two large screens at the front of the room.

Printed EXPO Programs

Sponsors will be featured in the formal printed "programs" which will be handed out to all attendees.

employABILITY Website

As soon as sponsorship is confirmed, Sponsor logos will be added to the website and will remain there throughout the year.
